

NGA Receives Third Joint Meritorious Unit Award

---

Deputy Defense Secretary Ashton B. Carter, right, presents the Joint Meritorious Unit Award to National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency (NGA) Director Letitia A. Long on behalf of her agency during a January 11, 2013 ceremony at the organization's headquarters. The Joint Meritorious Unit Award is reserved for organizations that provide meritorious service, beyond that which is normally expected, or under extraordinary circumstances that involve national interests. NGA Director Letitia A. Long accepted the award from Carter on behalf of her workforce before a standing-room only audience. For more information visit Defense.gov or the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency.